HIT BY CHISEL BUT RECOVERING

It may be that there will be no prosecution in the stabbing case that occurred at Watertown, Pearl Harbor, on the night of December 26, in which flairs Fred Olesen, now in the Queen's Hospital, received a nasty cut with a chisel. Police investigation shows that there was a general drunken brawl aboard a launch in which several men were celebrating the holidays. It seems that most of the men in the boat were throwing things about and Fred Olesen happened to be unfortunate enough to get in the way of a chisel. It is up to Olesen to prosecute if he desires. His wound was not serious.

ANOTHER NEW PLAY

The second part of the laughable farce "The Two Kings" was staged by the Golden Company at the Orpheum last evening and will be repeated this evening and tomorrow. Through love for her dead son she gives to this Spaniard officer her son's priestly robes, in which he disguises himself and escapes from peril.
